Chapter One: Night of Beginning

It was a peaceful sunny day on Berk. Viking's and dragon's living together. Viking's thought this was never possible until a skinny un-muscular boy be-friended a dragon that was so feared and was unknown to all Viking's. Yes I'm talking about Hiccup and Toothless. These two made life in Berk better. Let's see where Hiccup and Toothless are up to.

A few miles from Berk Toothless and Hiccup are fly patrolling Berk to make sure it not going to be attacked and time soon. This is Toothless's favorite time with his best human friend.

"Well Toothless should we head home?" Hiccup asked
Toothless

Toothless shook his head to its sides stating no.

"Do you want to keep flying?" Hiccup asked.

Toothless shook his head to its side again stating no.

"Do you want to go to our special spot?" Hiccup asked with more of a hopeful tone.

Toothless shook his head up and down this time stating yes.

"Okay buddy special spot it is then." Hiccup said while changing Toothless's tail.

It didn't take too long to get to the special spot on a night fury since a night fury's speed is unknown. Once Hiccup and Toothless were over the spot, Hiccup un-hooked his harness, stood up looking at the horizon.

"You ready Toothless?" Hiccup asked.

Toothless nodded his head up and down stating yes. With that, Hiccup jumped off Toothless, falling at a rapid speed. Toothless closed his wings and started to fall as well. Since he is heavier than his human friend he caught up to Hiccup and went past him. Just 5,000 feet from the ground, Toothless opened his wings which slowed him down enough for Hiccup to catch up. Hiccup was able to perfectly land on his saddle, hook his harness back up and switch Toothless's tail for Toothless to pull up just 25 feet from the ground.

"Nice job buddy I think that is as far as we can go with that trick." Hiccup said.

â€¦. â€¦.. â€¦.. â€¦ â€¦ â€¦. â€¦.. â€¦.. â€¦.. â€¦ â€¦. â€¦. â€¦.
â€¦. â€¦. â€¦. â€¦.

Toothless and Hiccup were sitting up against a rock at the place where they hung out first time they meet. Hiccup was drawing in his red leather notebook. Toothless was always amazed at his friend's carving. He wanted to carve just as good as his friend. Hiccup was into his drawing, that he didn't notice that Toothless was staring at him. An hour goes by and Hiccup finally finished his drawing. He closed his notebook, put back in his fur-vest jacket pocket and noticed the sun was setting.

"Look Toothless the sun is about to go down." Hiccup said as he pointed at the sun while looking at Toothless.

Toothless looked at what his friend was pointing and looked back at his friend. Hiccup and Toothless stared into each other's eyes. Just as the sun set, Toothless leaned his lips closer to Hiccup's lips and licked them.

"Toothless that is gross." Hiccup said as he whipped off Toothless's tongue saliva.

Just as Hiccup got done whipping his lips, Toothless pressed his dragon lips to Hiccup's lips. Hiccup was frozen. He didn't know if Toothless was kissing him or playing a trick until Toothless slide his tongue into Hiccup's mouth. Hiccup's brain was blank. He didn't know what to do. Should he push Toothless away or kissing Toothless back? So Hiccup put his tongue into Toothless's mouth, kissing his dragon back. Toothless was happy that his friend was enjoying this, so Toothless broke the kiss. Hiccup looked at Toothless who was standing on his hind legs.

"Toothless that wasâ€¦it wasâ€¦that felt nice." Hiccup stopped because he noticed a thirteen inch pink thing sticking out of Toothless and Hiccup knew what it was.

Toothless went back on all four, moved to his friend, put a paw on his friend's chest and pushed his friend on his back.

"Toothless what are youâ€¦" Hiccup was stopped because Toothless was over him, placing the pink thing near his mouth.

"You want me to put your dragon penis in my mouth?" Hiccup asked.

Toothless just rubbed his dragon penis against his friend's mouth. With that, Hiccup grabbed Toothless's penis and opened his mouth. He put Toothless's penis in his mouth and started to move his head back and forth. Toothless had never felt this before and was letting out small growls. His penis was throbbing and was getting feeling something building up. Hiccup was still moving his head; He couldn't get enough of this weird and desirable taste of Toothless's penis. He was able to take three inches of Toothless's penis. With no warning, Toothless started to thrust his hips, making his friend take an extra four inch of his dragon penis. Hiccup was gagging and trying not to throw up.

Toothless started to feel that build up getting ready to come out. He started to thrust even faster making his friend take another two inches. Hiccup couldn't help himself but get turned on by Toothless being forceful. Toothless reached his peak and did a big powerful thrust which caused him to make his friend take the entire fifteen inch dragon cock down his throat. Toothless shot his hot dragon semen down his friend's throat. Hiccup couldn't breathe really well and he felt some hot liquid stuff going down his throat. He had no choice but to swallow it, which tasted awful. Toothless put two gallons of semen in his friend's stomach. When he was done, he pulled his now soft dragon penis slowly out of his friend's mouth. Hiccup was gasping for air.

After gasping for four minutes, Hiccup put his hand on his stomach, which was swollen from taking two gallons of Toothless hot liquid stuff.

"Toothless did you put our semen in my stomach? Hiccup asked looking at Toothless.

Toothless wasn't paying any attention to what his friend was saying.

"Toothless what you staring at?" Hiccup asked as he followed Toothless gaze and noticed what Toothless was looking at.

Hiccup had become rock hard from pleasuring Toothless. Hiccup's penis was so hard it was sticking up in Hiccup's pants. So, he slide his pants off, revealing his seven inch penis to Toothless.

"Toothless come here." Hiccup said in a commanding tone.

Toothless went to his friend. Hiccup stood up and put a hand on Toothless's head. Hiccup's penis was pressed against Toothless's lips.

"Open your mouth Toothless but keep your teeth hidden." Hiccup said.

Toothless didn't understand what his friend said but by instinct and did what Hiccup had said. Hiccup started move his hips making his penis move back and forth inside Toothless's mouth. Toothless like the taste of his friend and decided to swirl his tongue around his friend's thing. This got Hiccup building his semen faster and started to move his hips faster. Toothless noticed his friend liking his tongue swirling on this thing.

"Toothless my semen is close." Hiccup said.

Toothless rapped his tail around Hiccups waist, making Hiccup continuing to move his penis in Toothless's mouth.

"You want my semen in your mouth. Okay buddy." Hiccup said and did a final forth motion and Hiccup shot a few strands of semen in Toothless's mouth.

Hiccup slowly pulled his penis out and sat down in front of Toothless. Toothless went to his friend.

"What is it Tooth." Hiccup was stopped dead in his sentence when Toothless put is dragon lips on Hiccups lips, putting his dragon tongue in Hiccups mouth.

Hiccup kissed Toothless back. They held the kiss for almost five minutes until Hiccup broke it.

"Toothless, this was amazing experience and I want to do this again with you." Hiccup said.

Toothless just nodded his head up and down stating yes. With, that Hiccup and Toothless friendship became even stronger and will continue to grow.

2. Chapter Two: Again In The Night

Chapter Two: Again In The Night

Three months has passed since that night and Hiccup couldn't stop thinking about although every time he thought that night, he became hard and had to take more breaks from work or go to a private place to get rid of his erect penis. Hiccup was confused. He thought he loved Astrid but now he thinks he in love with his long life buddy Toothless. Since Hiccup hasn't been himself, Stoick noticed that his son wasn't right.

Hiccup finished with working at the blacksmith shop and started to head home. On his way, he saw Astrid. So, Hiccup decided to walk over to her.

"Hey Astrid you got a second?" Hiccup asked

"Sure Hiccup." Astrid replied

Hiccup was only three feet from Astrid. He was trying to figure out what to say to the girl he may have a crush on. Finally Hiccup decided what to say.

"Astridâ€¦ lets kiss!" Hiccup said hoping not to get punched in the face.

Astrid was frozen. She didn't know how to respond to Hiccup. Why would he ask her to kiss him? She had no love interest in Hiccup. Finally she found her words.

"Hiccup why do you want us to kiss?" She asked him.

Hiccup was caught off guard since he was expecting to get punched. He had to think of what to say next.

"Astrid I think I'm in love with you but also may be in love withâ€¦ someone else and I want to know if my feelings know you're the one." Hiccup said.

Astrid started to blush. She thought Hiccup was trying to get with her.

"Okay Hiccup I'll go with it." Astrid said.

Astrid grabbed Hiccup and laid a quick kiss on Hiccup. When the kiss broke, Hiccup didn't feel anything.

"So how was that Hiccup?" Astrid asked.

Hiccup didn't want to tell Astrid that he felt nothing and get hit in the gut.

"Be honest Hiccup. I won't get mad at you or punch you in the gut." Astrid said.

With that, he took a deep breath.

"I didn't feel anything. I don't think I'm in love with you." Hiccup said.

"Okay Hiccupâ€¦ So, who is she you may be in love with?" Astrid asked in playful tone.

Hiccup couldn't tell Astrid that the she was a he and the he was not human. Hiccup did the one thing that came to his mind. Hiccup ran into the forest. He ran and ran until he couldn't run no more. He was hunched over, catching his breath. When Hiccup stood up, he noticed he was at his special spot and saw Toothless lying next to the pond. Hiccup felt great relief seeing his best friend. So, Hiccup walked to toothless, put a hand on Toothless's back. Toothless put his head up, turned it and saw his rider.

"Hay Toothless. What you doing way out here? Shouldn't you be at home?" Hiccup asked.

Toothless just looked at Hiccup and Hiccup was staring back. Then, Hiccup leaned and his lips on Toothless's lips. Toothless was liking the lip contact. So, he slid his tongue into Hiccups mouth. Hiccup's feelings were now one hundred percent sure that Toothless was the one. Hiccup broke the kiss, letting Toothless's tongue slowly slide out.

"Toothless I love you. I mean as a mate. Do you understand?" Hiccup asked.

Toothless took his paw and put it on Hiccup's chest.

"You do don't you. You knew all along but waited till I was ready to understand on my own." Hiccup said.

Toothless just shook his head up and down stating yes. With that, Hiccup took his clothes off. He was now fully nude in front of Toothless. Seeing his best friend naked, Toothless's dragon penis became fully erect.

"Well looks like some dragon likes what he sees." Hiccup said.

Toothless got on his back; showing is rock hard fifteen inch penis to his mate. Hiccup got onto Toothless's belly, having his penis facing Toothless mouth and Toothless's penis facing his. Toothless wasted no time. He licked Hiccups penises, making it twitch every time he licked it. Hiccup liked that his lover was showing him affection and that made Hiccup hard. Toothless took Hiccups penis in his mouth and started to move his head back and forth. Hiccup let out a small moan. Then he put two inches of Toothless's penis in his mouth and did the same head movement. They both did the same rhythm. Hiccup remembered when Toothless came last time, he forced the entire penis in his mouth and wanted to try doing that on his own. So, Hiccup brought his head, having just the tip of Toothless's penis in his mouth. Toothless was wondering what his mate was trying to do. So he thrust his hips up, making his entire penis go into Hiccups mouth. Hiccup gaged a little but managed not to throw up. He got so turned on by the roughness; he came in to Toothless's mouth. Toothless swallowed his mate's semen.

Toothless slowly brought hips down, making his penis slide out of Hiccups mouth. Toothless slightly leaned up, giving the sign that he wanted Hiccup off of him. Hiccup knew that and climbed off on Toothless.

"What's the matter bud?" Hiccup asked.

Toothless got on his hind legs and motioned Hiccup to come over. Hiccup went to Toothless. Toothless put his paws on each side of Hiccups hip's and picked him up.

"Toothless what areâ€¦" Hiccup was stopped because Toothless had placed him right over his fifteen inch penis. Toothless looked at Hiccup, like he was waiting for something. Hiccup nodded his head up and down. Toothless took that as the okay sign and forced Hiccup straight down onto his penis, making the entire penis go in Hiccups hole with one motion. Hiccup moaned loudly. He looked at Toothless and noticed that he wasn't moving his penis. So Hiccup started to move his hips up and down. This was making Toothless make small growls. Hiccup felt hot like he was on fire but from the inside. So, he moved his hip's faster, which made Toothless to make louder noises. Hiccup kept the same rhythm for twenty minutes until Toothless decided that he wanted to do some of the work. So, Toothless started to move his hips as well. Hiccup and Toothless were matching each other's rhythm. They were going at for thirty-five minutes and Toothless could feel he was building up. So, he broke the rhythm and stated to thrust at a rapid speed.

"Toothless areâ€|uhâ€|you gettingâ€|nahâ€|close?" Hiccup asked.

Within seconds, Toothless grabbed Hiccups sides, forced him all the way down on his penis and shot four gallons of dragon semen into him. Hiccups hole couldn't hold it all, so the semen traveled all the way to his belly, which started to swell up.

"Toothlessâ€|I'mâ€|goanna," Hiccup shot a load of semen on Toothless's chest.

Toothless penis was done shooting semen in to his mate. So, he held his mate and layed on his side, still holding Hiccup.

"I guess this means we are mates for life. I love you Toothless." Hiccup said.

Toothless and Hiccup quickly fell a sleep together for the first knowing they have finally found their life long mate.

3. Chapter Three: The Impossible

Chapter Three: The Impossible

The morning sun rose, shining light through the woods. The sun shined light on Hiccups causing him to wake up. Hiccup rubbed his eyes. He looked up and seen Toothless still asleep. Hiccup got an idea on how to wake him up. He licked Toothless's chest very slowly. Toothless, who is still asleep, shivered from the unknown feeling. Hiccup thinks that something more dramatic will wake his buddy up. Hiccup removed himself from the warm comfort of his mate, moved down between Toothless's legs and put his hand on Toothless's sheath. He was about to rub it until he felt a pain in his stomach. The pain was so bad that Hiccup yelled so loud that even the entire island of Berk could have heard him. The yell was so loud; Toothless woke up jumping to his legs. He saw his mate holding his belly. So he, walked to his mate, putting his head near the belly, trying to figure out what's wrong.

"Toothless we need to go back to Berk. I'm not feeling well." Hiccup said as he was getting his pants on.

Toothless went on his hind legs and put his claw on his mate's belly.

"What you doing?" Hiccup asked.

Toothless then put his claw on himself and then back on his mates belly.

Hiccup was confused and copied what Toothless doing.

"Toothless why you putting your claw on my stomach, then on your stomach and then back on mine?" As Hiccup asked that, he realized what Toothless was saying.

Hiccup felt sick and couldn't stand right. He sat down on the ground and Toothless sat in front of his mate.

"Toothless I think I'm producing a babyâ€|dragon." Hiccup said in a worried voice.

Toothless licked his mates face showing his excitement. Hiccup whipped his face.

"Toothless this is bad. How could this happen? What will we do?" Hiccup asked as he put his hands on his face.

"We will start a family." A strange voice said.

Hiccup removed his hands looking around trying to locate the mysterious voice.

"Toothless did you hear that voice? I think were not alone." He said.

"Were alone and the voice was me the voice was me you heard." The night fury said.

"Toothless you can talk! How is this possible?" Hiccup asked.

"My heart felt you were terrified and used magic to allow me to speak your tongue." Toothless explained.

Hiccup just stared at Toothless, trying to make sense of all this.

"Then tell me Toothless, how can I get pregnant by a male dragon?" Hiccup asked.

"I only came to one thought." Toothless replied.

"And what is that?" Hiccup asked.

"Your half dragon." Toothless said.

Hiccup started to laugh a bit but stopped from the stomach pain.

"What's funny love?" Toothless asked.

"I can't be half dragon. That's not possible." Hiccup replied.

Toothless grabbed Hiccup and held him in his arms.

"Nothing is impossible love. We will get through this together. You, me and the baby." Toothless said as he held Hiccup tighter.

Hiccup started to cry in Toothless's hug.

"What you crying for love?" Toothless asked.

"I'm crying out of happiness. I always wanted to have a family and now I got one." Hiccup said as he was still crying.

"See everything will be okay but um what about your father?" Toothless asked.

"I haven't thought about that yetâ€¦knowing him, he would first think that you're forced yourself on me and kill you." Hiccup said.

"Then we'll leave Berk and start our family in peace." Toothless said.

"You mean leave everything behind. I don't know Toothless." Hiccup said as he turned his head away.

"What's better love? Your father killing me and you carry the baby by yourself until its born and your father kills it out abomination or we leave and raise the baby together?" Toothless asked.

Hiccup didn't even think.

"Let's raise the baby together." Hiccup said.

Toothless was happy to hear that. So, he got down a bit.

"Let's go then. Let's go and be a family." Toothless said.

Hiccup climbed on Toothless's back and they flew off into the sun rise. Going to a place where the sun will shine and to where hope will be their strength.

4. Chapter Four: Shine Out The Night

Chapter Four: Shine Out The Night

Hiccup and Toothless flew and flew and flew for hours, trying to find the perfect place to raise their baby in peace. They wanted to make sure that no one from Berk would find them.

"Toothless how long have we been flying?" Hiccup asked.
>"I don't know love maybe a few a hours. Why?" Toothless replied.

"I'm feeling tired and hungry." Hiccup said.

"well why didn't you say so. We will land , eat and sleep. We'll continue our journey tomorrow." Toothless said.

With that, Hiccup adjusted Toothless's tail so they can slowly descend.

Toothless had noticed an island and thought it was an okay place to land for the night. He scanned for safe spot to land and saw a spot that had a cave in it.

"Love there is a cave we can stay in for the night on that island." Toothless said.

"Okay then lets hurry." Hiccup said.

Toothless closed his wings and tilted slightly downwards. He was picking up speed. Hiccup wrapped his arms around Toothless's neck.

This made Toothless feel bubbly inside. When they were thirty feet from the ground, Toothless opened up his wings, which slowed him down quickly. Toothless and Hiccup landed just outside of the cave.

"You go inside love while I find something for us to eat." Toothless said.

Hiccup went in the cave while Toothless went off finding food. Thirty minutes later, Toothless came back with a dead deer on his back. Hiccup was surprised. He has never seen Toothless caring a dead animal before. Toothless usually brings a mouth full of fish.

"Will this be enough food for you?" Toothless asked.

"Yes that will last me all month. Thanks Toothless." Hiccup said as he walked up to Toothless.

Toothless helped Hiccup get the deer cut up and the meat prepared to be cooked.

"Okay Toothless let's get some wood for a fire" Hiccup said as he was getting up.

"Why don't you just relax love? You're caring a child. Relax and tend to the baby." Toothless said.

"Are you sure? I'd feel guilty having you do all the work." Hiccup replied.

"What do you mean? You're doing the hardest work that I can't do. Carry a baby." Toothless said as he rubbed his head against Hiccup's belly.

"Okay Toothless but make sure you get lots of twigs and dry wood." Hiccup replied. Toothless nodded his head and went off for wood.

Hiccup kept wondering why Toothless keeps saying love instead of his name.

Suddenly it got pitch black. Hiccup couldn't see anything. So, he decided to just lie on his back and wait for Toothless to get back. Hiccup stared into the blackness which seemed to feel like hours but then he heard a noise.

"Toothless is that you?" Hiccup asked.

Then he felt something rubbing his leg.

"Toothless I'm not in the mood. Just put the wood down so we can get a fire going." He said.

The rubbing went up to Hiccup's crotch which made Hiccup moan. The rubbing got faster and Hiccup's moans got louder. Then the thing rubbing him, grabbed his pants and ripped them off.

"Toothless I said I wasn't in the mood. The rubbing was fine but THIIIISSSSSS!" Hiccup yelled as he felt a severe pain in his anal. Hiccup knows now this isn't Toothless.

"Who ever you are stop" Hiccup muttered.

The mysterious thing fucking Hiccup didn't listen but picked up speed. This made Hiccup yell very loud. Toothless heard Hiccup yell and rushed back to the cave. As Toothless got closer, Hiccup yells got louder and louder. Toothless got to the entrance of the cave but couldn't see anything. So, he shot a fire blast in the middle of the cave. The fire lit up the cave and stayed lit. Toothless saw an unknown dragon fucking his mate.

"Hey get away from my mate or I'll bite your throat." Toothless said in a tough tone. The unknown dragon ignored Toothless and kept fucking Hiccup. Toothless ran to the back of the dragon, bit the dragon's tail and pulled on it. Making the unknown dragon sliding away from Hiccup. The unknown dragon's cock slid out of Hiccup, which Hiccup got a glance of it and it looked to be seventeen inches long.

The unknown dragon turned around and snapped at Toothless which made him let go of the tail. Now Toothless and the dragon were face to face.

"Why are you messing with my mate?" Toothless asked.

"He had a nice body." The dragon replied.

"Hiccup is my mate and only mine. Get out before I tear your throat off." Toothless said with a growl tone. The dragon snickered and left. Toothless went to Hiccup.

"Are you okay love? Did he hurt you or the baby?" Toothless asked.

"I think we're okay and he just hurt my butt." Hiccup replied.

Toothless rubbed his head against Hiccup's belly.

"Toothless your fire blast. It's still burning. How is that possible?" Hiccup asked.

"My magic felt it's necessary to keep it burning." Toothless said.

Hiccup kissed Toothless and Toothless kissed back. They kissed for ten minutes then Hiccup broke it.

"You are amazing. This baby is amazing. I'm glad we're together." Hiccup said.

"I wouldn't have it any other way." Toothless replied.

"You know, the cave was pitch black. Almost like night black. Your fire blast shined out the dark. So, you shined out the night." Hiccup said.

"I guess I did." Toothless replied.

Hiccup and Toothless had found a place for the night. Not knowing what tomorrow will bring them.

5. Chapter Five: Missing In The Night

Chapter Five: Missing In The Night

The sun rose, shining out the night time. Lighting up the cave, waking up Hiccup and Toothless, who had slept in each other's arms during the night. Toothless and Hiccup opened their eyes and gazed into each other's eyes.

"Morning love." Toothless said as he stretched his muscles.

"Morning to you as well sexy beast." Hiccup replied.

"Beast what happened to calling me Toothless?" Toothless Asked.

"I thought I'd give you a nickname like you did for me." Hiccup replied.

"I haven't given you a nickname." Toothless said while looking confused.

"Yes you have. You call me love all the time instead of my birth name. I don't mind being called love but I like to hear you say my name to." Hiccup said in light upset tone.

"I don't like your name. Your name doesn't fit who you are." Toothless said.

"Yes it does. Hiccup was given to me because I was the weakest Viking on Berk. I couldn't kill a dragon even if I wanted to." Hiccup said but in an angry tone.

"Exactly love. You're not weak. You were able to defeat me a night fury. You brought dragons and Vikings together. You even have a dragon academy." Toothless said. He grabbed Hiccup and held him tight.

"You're a strong, smart, hardworking, honest and kind human. You will help anybody who is in trouble and help those who cause trouble." Toothless said.

"Toothless. I don't have any idea. Wish I had known." Hiccup said in a guilt voice.

Toothless lifted Hiccup's head and kissed him.

"How could you. I couldn't talk back then. Well I'm off to get more meat love. While I'm out I'll think of a new name for you" Toothless said.

Toothless went off in search of food. Hiccup felt thirsty but they had no water in the cave. He wants to go get water but he and Toothless haven't explored the island yet but he felt super thirsty. Hiccup had decided to go out for a while to find water. He got up and gathered his things and headed out.

â€¦

Toothless was stocking a deer. Waiting for the right moment to attack. The deer got closer and close to Toothless, not knowing it's near the end of its cycle. Toothless attacked taking the deer down in one move.

"I hope love doesn't mind deer again. " He said as got the deer on is back. He started to walk back to the cave, still thinking on a new name for Hiccup. He just couldn't think of any that would match Hiccup.

"Love deserves a name that really means something. A name that matches his personality." Toothless sais to himself.

"How about Lok?" A mysterious female voice said.

"Who said that? Who's there?" Toothless asked.

"I did." The mysterious voice said.

The voice showed itself. It was a light blue female dragon. She looked to be near three-hundred years old. The blue dragon walked up to Toothless.

"Who are?" Toothless asked.

"I am Octavia. I know about you Toothless and your mate Hiccup." The Dragon replied.

"How do you know about us and how much do you know? Toothless asked.

"I have my ways but right now you must listen for danger will befall Hiccup." Octavia replied.

"What do you mean by danger and what does Lok mean? Toothless asked.

"Hiccup has left the cave and is in danger from another dragon that knows Hiccup's destiny." Octavia said.

"Another dragon. How may are there on this island?" Toothless asked.

"Just me and the other but that isn't important. Hiccup is a very rare creature. He is the second creature to be half human and half dragon." Octavia said.

"Wait if there are only two dragons on this island, which means we had already met the other dragon." Toothless said.

"You did? Did the other dragon say or do anything?" Octavia asked.

"Yes, he mated with my mate and said that he did it because my mate had a nice body." Toothless said.

"That's not like him. Why he do that? It makes no sense." Octavia said to herself.

"What was that?" Toothless asked.

"Nothing. You must go find Hiccup before the danger befalls him.
"Octavia said before she disappeared.

Toothless turned around and ran for the cave. The sun was starting to set. Toothless ran as fast as his legs could carry him. By the time he reached the cave, night had fallen. He walked to the cave entrance and did not see his mate. Toothless became worried and started to panic. He tried to smell for his mate's scent but could not find any trace of it.

"Love where have you gone" Toothless said to himself as he sat at the cave entrance.

â€|

Hiccup had found a pond. He knelt down filling his water pouch.

"Wow your producing a hatchling after just mating with you only once. You truly are the one." A mysterious voice said.

"Who is there? Show yourself." Hiccup commanded.

A red dragon appeared in front of Hiccup.

"Wait I remember you. You're the one who mated with me." Hiccup said.

"Yes I am and I can't believe you're going to have my hatchling. " The red dragon replied.

"Ha well I'm not sorry to disappoint you but this is Toothless's baby not yours." Hiccup said a firm tone.

"Makes no difference I can raise it as my own." The dragon replied.

"Ha you wish. Me and Toothless are going to raise the baby." Hiccup said.

"You depend on that dragon too much. What are you going to do when he isn't around?" The dragon asked.

"He will be raising the hatchling to be a great dragon" A female voice said.

"Who said that?" Hiccup asked.

"In your tongue, her name is Octavia." The red dragon said.

A light blue female dragon showed itself behind Hiccup.

"This human is the last of his kind. He will reborn the dragonoids." Octavia said.

"Dragonoids what are those?" Hiccup asked.

"You will find out when the hatchling is born." Octavia said.

Suddenly a blue fog covered Hiccup. The fog settled and Hiccup was gone.

"You know that the hatchling will be mine in the end." The red dragon said.

"You don't know that human's destiny nor of the hatchlings. Do you? Slog." Octavia replied.

"Destiny can be rewritten." Slog said.

"To those who can alter it." Octavia replied.

â€|

It was the middle of the night and Toothless was still up, waiting for his mate to return, who was still missing in the night. Suddenly a blue light appeared behind Toothless. Toothless turned around and saw his mate standing in the middle of the cave. Toothless went up to his mate.

"Toothless I'm sorâ€|" Hiccup didn't get to finish his sentence for Toothless had pulled him into a hug, holding his mate tightly.

Hiccup hugged him back.

"Love where did you go? I told you to stay in the cave." Toothless said.

"I was thirsty so I went to get water." Hiccup replied while holding up his water pouch.

"From now on I'll be getting all supplies." Toothless said.

"Okay but Toothless we have a problem." Hiccup replied.

"What's that?" Toothless said.

"There is another dragon." Hiccup replied while breaking the hug.

"Yes I know. A blue one called Octavia." Toothless said.

"How do you know it?" Hiccup asked.

"I met her while I was getting food for you. Why did she meet you as well?" Toothless asked.

"Yes and she said something about how I'm going to reborn the dragonoids and how I'm the last of my kind. Toothless what's going on with me?" Hiccup asked.

This is a trouble time for Hiccup and Toothless. What will happen now that a new threat has appeared? What is the mysterious dragonoids? Find out in Chapter Six: The Truth Of The Dragonkins.

Chapter Six: Truth Of The Dragonoid's

The next evening, Hiccup and Toothless sat in the cave. They were trying to figure out what was happening on this island and what were the two other dragons plans. There were more questions than answers to this island.

"Well enough sitting around lets go find some answers." Hiccup said as he started to stand up.

"You're right. I don't want our child to be born on an island that is dangerous." Toothless replied.

"Agreed" Hiccup said.

So with that, Hiccup packed some food and some water.

"Where should we start our expedition love?" Toothless asked.

"I was thinking we start with the forest. Something is telling us to go there." Hiccup replied.

"Okay. I hope you packed enough food for you and the baby." Toothless said.

"Yes I have half of this pouch full of food." Hiccup replied.

Hiccup put the pouch on. He double checked everything to see if he has everything he needs. Then Hiccup and Toothless stood at the entrance of the cave. Hiccup got on Toothless and they flew off. They headed for the forest, which didn't take long by flying.

"Do you see anything Toothless?" Hiccup asked.

Toothless looked in every direction.

"Nothing love. Want to try a different?" Toothless asked.

"No something is telling me to search the forest. We need to go further." Hiccup replied,

So they did fly further. They flew for thirty minutes. Toothless suddenly saw something blue on the ground.

"Love, I saw something moving on the ground." Toothless said.

"What was it?" Hiccup asked.

"It might have been that blue dragon." Toothless replied.

"Okay lets fallow but from the air." Hiccup said.

Toothless nodded his head. They fallowed the blue dragon. Hiccup was wondering what the dragon could be doing way out in the forest. Toothless was keeping track of the dragon. Suddenly, the blue dragon disappeared.

" Love the dragon is gone." Toothless said.

"Circle back and land. We'll see where the dragon has gone too." Hiccup said.

They circled back and landed where the dragon had vanished. They were looking around until they found a stone in the ground. The stone had writing on that Hiccup nor Toothless have seen before.

"It's the final resting place of the great dragonoid." A female voice said.

Hiccup and Toothless turned around and saw the blue dragon. The dragon walked next to the stone and pushed it down. A hidden passage way opened up in front of the stone.

"Hiccup, Toothless, you need to know more about what a dragonoid is and need to know why Hiccup could produce a dragon egg." The dragon said as she pointed to the passage entry.

Hiccup and Toothless went in followed behind was the blue dragon.

"If this is a trap to hurt my love and our child, I'll bite your throat off." Toothless said.

"Toothless I don't think the dragon intends on hurting me nor the baby." Hiccup said.

"What makes you think that love?" Toothless asked.

"The dragon wanted us to follow it from the beginning. Ever since it showed itself to you and warned you that I was in danger." Hiccup said.

"Yes that's true however my brother on the other hand would have ended your life it wasn't for the fact that you're carrying a rare dragon inside of you." The dragon said.

The three finally came to a huge stone door. It had the same writing as the stone outside.

"What does this say?" Hiccup asked.

"The chosen blood shall open the future." The dragon said.

"Well what does that mean?" Toothless asked as he turned to look at dragon.

When he turned around, the dragon was gone.

"Love the dragon is gone." Toothless said.

Hiccup turned around and turned back to the door.

"Why did she leave us?" Toothless asked.

"I think the dragon can only help is for a short while." Hiccup replied.

"Okay but how do we open this door?" Toothless asked.

"I might have an idea. Hold out your claw." Hiccup said.

"What for?" Toothless asked as he held out his claw.

Without saying a word, Hiccup put his hand over Toothless's claw, pressed down and pulled back. The claws made a cut on Hiccups hand witch caused blood.

"Love what you do that for?" Toothless asked.

"Watch." Hiccup said as he placed his cut hand on the stone door.

The doors slowly began to open.

"How did you know that would work?" Toothless asked.

"I didn't." Hiccup said as he was bandaging his hand.

Hiccup and Toothless went through the door. Everything was too dark to see anything. Before Hiccup could say anything, Toothless shot a fire blast. The fire blast had made the dark go away. What Hiccup and Toothless saw made them froze on the spot. The place was a huge stone room. It was as big as the great hall on Berik. At the far back, there was a wall with huge writing on it. Hiccup and Toothless went to the wall. They were looking at it for a long time.

"What do you think it says" Toothless asked.

"I think it's about me and the baby." Hiccup replied.

Hiccup put his hand on the wall. It felt rough and cold. He was trying to figure out this dragonoid mystery.

"You want to know what that says?" A female voice asked.

Hiccup didn't turn around for he remembered that voice but Toothless did turn around. It was the blue female dragon.

"How can you read that?" Toothless asked.

"I'm surprised you can't read it. It's written in dragon tongue." The dragon said.

"Can every dragon read this?" Toothless asked.

"Yes it is our primary tongue. When you talk to other dragons, your speaking dragon tongue." The dragon replied.

Hiccup turned around looking at the dragon.

"What does thus wall say?" Hiccup asked.

"Fifty thousand years ago, there was a war between the dragons and humans. There was countless blood shed on both sides. During the war, a human girl and a male dragon would meet in the middle of the night, in a secret cave. They met in secret because they had fallen for each other. One night, the woman come baring news. She had told the dragon that she was caring a baby. Not just any baby, his baby. The dragon was filled with joy and so was the girl. The next night, the human girl told her village that dragons and humans can get along. The dragon had told the same thing to his herd. Both sides had agreed to a live in peace. Fifteen years later, the human girl had given birth to a healthy female dragonoid. Soon after, the dragons and humans were fighting again due to lack of food. In the middle of it all, the female dragonoid had gotten killed. Both sides had blamed each other. Before the dragons left to find a new place, they had left a stone tablet that said that a male human and a male dragon will give birth to a dragonoid." The blue female dragon explained.

"Wait hold on. You're saying that me and Toothless are the ones that will start the era of dragonoid's?" Hiccup asked.

"Yes that's right." The dragon replied.

"I want to ask something that has been worrying me since my love got pregnant." Toothless said.

"Don't worry; the egg will be coated with a liquid substance. Hiccup will be in pain but won't die." The dragon replied.

Toothless looked at Hiccup with relief. Hiccup returned the look back but when they both went to look back at the dragon, she had already disappeared.

"How does she do that?" Toothless asked.

"No idea but it doesn't matter. The only thing that matters in that our lives will change for the better and we even figured out the mystery of this island." Hiccup replied.

"Your right. Let's head back to the cave and rest. For tomorrow and onward, our future will be bright as the star night." Toothless said.

With that, Hiccup and Toothless went back to the cave.

â€|.

Somewhere else on the island the blue female dragon was with the red male dragon.

"Where have you been?" The red dragon asked.

"Doing what I was born to do. Help start the life of the dragonoid's." The blue dragon replied.

"You know that when the dragonoid is born, one of the parents will have to make a decision." The red dragon said.

"Yes but for now, they will be living their lives as the first new world family." The blue dragon said.

The red dragon just snickered and flew off while the blue dragon just looked up at the sky smiling.

Chapter Seven: Birth of The Dragonoid

Four months have passed since Hiccup and Toothless had come to the mysterious island and learned about their baby being a dragonoid. Hiccup and Toothless have made the cave their home. Hiccups stomach has gotten big due to the baby.

"Hey Toothless for dinner can we have fish and peaches?" Hiccup asked.

"Fish and peaches? I don't mind the fish but peaches. Why peaches?" Toothless asked.

"I'm craving fish and peaches. No idea why just do" Hiccup replied.

"Okay love I'll get your odd food." Toothless said.

"Thanks hey when you get back, I'll polish your tail." Hiccup said.

Toothless looked confused but left the cave to get to get Hiccup his food. He went to nearest water and got the fish first. It was easy to get the fish. The peaches would be tougher because he had rarely seen any fruit on the island.

"He will be giving birth soon to your child." A female voice said.

Toothless knew it was the blue dragon.

"I know I have sensed it." Toothless replied.

"Why are you here?" The dragon said.

"Love wanted something to eat." Toothless replied.

"You should be there. I can get food." The dragon said.

"I can do it." Toothless relied.

"You two still don't understand the danger." The dragon said.

"What that another dragon will take our child and turn her evil. We understand but we are not going to live in hiding." Toothless said in a tough tone.

The dragon just shook her head before she flew off. Toothless took a breath in and went back to getting food. Three hours go by and Toothless came home finding Hiccup sleeping. He put the dinner next to the wall and went to lay with Hiccup. Before he could sit down, he felt something smooth and warm rub his chest. When Toothless looked down, he saw Hiccups hand rubbing his chest.

"Did I wake you love?" Toothless asked.

"I was never asleep." Hiccup said before he gave Toothless a long passionate kiss.

They were kissing like it was their first time. Swapping tongues, sharing saliva and touching each other's bodies. Toothless started to slowly lick Hiccup's neck. Slowly going down and back up.

"let's take these clothes off you." Toothless said.

Hiccup slowly took off his shirt. Toothless just stared at Hiccup, appreciating on how his mate's body looked. So perfect, so smooth and so small except for the round belly. Hiccup started to take his trousers and undies off. He was naked in front of Toothless with an erect penis. Toothless put his head between Hiccup's legs and licked Hiccup's penis. Hiccup let out a small moan. Toothless then took Hiccup's entire seven inch penis in his mouth. Slowly pleasuring his mate. Hiccup was moan loudly. He couldn't control his voice. Somehow Toothless was really good at sucking his penis.

"Toothlessâ€¦I'm clâ€¦close." Hiccup moanly said.

Toothless didn't stop sucking his mate's penis. Instead, he went faster. Causing Hiccup to lose control and shot his semen in Toothless hot and wet mouth. Toothless took Hiccup's penis out of his mouth and swallowed the semen.

"How was that Love?" Toothless asked.

"Thatâ€¦wasâ€¦amazing." Hiccup replied while breathing heavily.

"Is your mouth ready for my penis?" Toothless asked.

Hiccup nodded his. Toothless placed himself over Hiccup, putting his penis near his mate's mouth. Hiccup was amazed at Toothless fifteen inch dragon penis. He teased Toothless by slowly licking the penis. That made Toothless slightly moan. Hiccup then took three inches in his mouth. Sucking slowly, savoring the taste of Toothless. Hiccup slightly sucked faster, which made Toothless moan loud.

"Yes Love. Suck my penis." Toothless said.

Hiccup obeyed and kept sucking. He started to rub Toothless sides, making a shivering feeling go through Toothless entire body. Toothless slowly moved his hips. Hiccup noticed and stopped moving his head. Toothless stated to take control and was screwing his mate's mouth.

"Ohâ€¦you like itâ€¦when I do it?" Toothless asked in between thrusts.

Hiccup lightly nodded his head. With that, Toothless picked up the pace. Making his mate take six inches of his penis. Hiccup was again trying not to gage. Toothless was getting close to release.

"You want my semen?" Toothless asked in a playful tone.

Hiccup nodded his head again. Toothless did a few more thrusts before doing a hard thrust which caused Hiccup to take the entire fifteen inch penis. Toothless shot three and a half gallon of semen in Hiccup's mouth. Hiccup basically had to swallow it all. When Toothless was done shooting his semen, he slowly pulled his penis out of Hiccup's mouth. Hiccup coughed.

"You okay Love? Was I to rough with you?" Toothless asked.

"Nâ€|no I'm fine. Just not use to your big penis." Hiccup replied.

"Okay. How is the baby?" Toothless asked.

"The baby is fine. I don't think taking your penis hurt it." Hiccup replied while he reached for his trousers.

Toothless quickly snatched the trousers and threw them to the other side of the cave.

"Toothless why you do that?" Hiccup asked.

"Because I want you to start no wearing those things while your pregnant. What if the baby came and we couldn't get those off in time." Toothless replied.

"Toothless it gets cold in the morning and at night. How do I stay warm? Hiccup asked.

Toothless went to Hiccups bag and pulled out a blanket. He brought the blanket to his mate.

"You brought this with us." Toothless said as he threw the blanket over Hiccup.

Hiccup snuggled up in the blanket but felt something missing. He looked up at Toothless and knew what was missing. He patted next to him.

"Come and let's sleep together. Your body will help warm me up faster." Hiccup said.

Toothless lay with Hiccup. They both fell asleep quickly.

â€|..

The sun hadn't even come up and Hiccup woke up feeling a sharp pain in his stomach. He removed the blanket and saw blood from between his legs. He put his hand on Toothless head and shook it.

"What's wrong Love?" Toothless asked as he is waking up.

"I thinkâ€|its time." Hiccup replied while holding his stomach.

Toothless eye's quickly opened up. He shot up trying to figure out what to do.

"What should I do Love?" Toothless asked.

"Nâ€|nothing." Hiccup replied while in pain.

Hiccup screamed in pain. He felt something coming out of his butt. He tried to relax as much as possible. Toothless felt helpless then he thought of something. He laid next to Hiccup and extending his claw out.

"Squeeze my claw. It will help with the pain." Toothless said.

Hiccup help Toothless claw and squeezed it. It was kind of working. Hiccup was in pain for thirty-five minutes. Then Hiccup squeezed really tight for this pain felt like a dragon had put its claw up in Hiccups butt. They both suddenly heard a pop sound. They both looked and saw a black egg. A black egg right there in front of them.

"Love is that our baby?" Toothless asked.

"Yes. That is our baby." Hiccup replied as he picked up the egg and rapped it the blanket.

"So, now what?" Toothless asked.

"We keep the egg warm and safe till it hatches." Hiccup replied.

"We did it. We have a family. Me, you and our child." Toothless said.

"Yes we did and now we have to hatch it." Hiccup replied.

Toothless was filled with joy. He has the love of his life and has a baby. He just wanted to go tell the world of his new life.

"Toothless come here." Hiccup said.

Toothless went to his mate.

"What do youâ€¦" Toothless was cut off because Hiccup had kissed him.

"Thank you for helping delivering our baby." Hiccup said after he broke the kiss.

"I didn't do anything." Toothless replied.

"You're wrong. Being by my side was helping. I couldn't have done this without you." Hiccup replied.

Toothless couldn't help but blush. Hiccup put the egg next to him. Toothless laid on the other side and they went back to sleep.

8. Chapter Eight: Hatching

Chapter Eight: Hatching

Morning rose, the sun shining light into the cave waking Toothless. Toothless looked at Hiccup, smiling. He stroked Hiccups hair and then the egg. He put his claw on it, it felt rough and cold. Toothless went to Hiccups bag and got another blanket to put on Hiccup and the egg. When Toothless pulled out the blanket, a piece of paper fell out. There was an image on it. The image was Hiccup, his father and all his friends. Toothless stared at the image thinking if everyone on Berk hated him. He shook his head and went putting the blanket on Hiccup and the egg. Toothless went and sat at the entrance of the cave. He stared off into the horizon, taking in the morning air. He remembered doing this back on Berk every morning before he and Hiccup went flying with their friends. Toothless would wake up before Hiccup, going out of the house, sitting in the front grass.

"I'll go tell the family of the news if you desire." That same female dragon voice said.

"What?" Toothless replied.

"I'll go tell Hiccup's family that he is fine and has a child". The dragon said.

"Why would you do that?" Toothless asked.

"it's for the baby. I doubt you want to raise it on this island." The dragon said.

"Berk. The place where come from is Berk". Toothless said.

"I know where that is, I fly by it during the migration." The dragon said.

The dragon suddenly flew off. Toothless looked back at Hiccup and sighed. He got up, walked to Hiccup and the egg. He stared at them for a bit and then lay next to them. Toothless imagined what the family would be like back on Berk. After a while, he went back to sleep.

â€|

The female dragon was over Berk, trying to find a place to land. She found a spot near the cliff. Stoick, Astrid everyone went to go great her.

"Welcome to Berk". Stoick said.

"Thank you bearded man." The dragon said.

Everyone was stunned at the female dragon talking.

"I'm looking for Hiccup's family?" The dragon asked.

"How do you know my son's name?" Stoick asked.

"I met him and he is fine. So, are Toothless and their baby." The dragon replied.

"I don't care about that kidâ€|wait their baby. What nonsense are you talking about?" Stoick asked.

"Hiccup and Toothless have an egg together. An egg Hiccup produced." The dragon replied.

Everyone was speechless. How could Hiccup get pregnant with a dragon egg or how could he even get the egg out.

"I'll tell you everything. Beginning to now." The dragon said.

So they all went to the great hall and the dragon explained everything. When she got done, everyone had their mouths hung open.

Stoick couldn't believe that this has happened to his son. Finally he found his voice.

"When will they come back?" Stoick asked.

"When the egg has hatched." The dragon replied.

"And when will that be?" Astrid asked.

"Three weeks at the most." The dragon replied.

Everyone was disappointed. They had hoped that it be sooner.

"Can you do me a favor dragon?" Stoick asked.

"What is that beard guy?" The dragon replied.

"Tell Hiccup and Toothless that we are not mad and we will wait for their return." Stoick said.

"I will beard guy." The dragon said.

Dragon left the great hall and took flight to the air, heading back to Hiccup and Toothless.

â€¦

Hiccup slowly woke up. Stretching and yawning. He got up, looked at the egg and Toothless. He smiled took a breath of air in, looked around and saw a piece of paper on the ground. He walked up to it, picked and noticed it was a picture of him, Toothless and all their friends. Hiccup smiled and felt sad. Suddenly, he felt warm arms around his stomach. Hiccup turned his head and noticed Toothless holding him.

"Hey I thought you were asleep?" Hiccup questioned.

"I wasn't but just closed my eyes." Toothless replied.

Hiccup slightly giggled. Toothless noticed what Hiccup was holding.

"I miss them to love but once the egg hatches and is strong enough to travel, we can go home as a family." Toothless said.

"I'm not worried about traveling; I'm worried about when we get home. How will everyone react to us? Will they accept us?" Hiccup asked in a scared tone.

"If they don't, it's their loss. We will raise our child together without help." Toothless said as he held Hiccup tighter.

"Your family is worried about you and is waiting for your return home." A female voice.

It was the blue female dragon near the entrance of the cave.

"What do you mean?" Hiccup asked.

"I went to your home and told your family that you were okay and that there is a new addition to the family." The dragon said.

"So they want us back?" Hiccup asked.

"Yes they do." The Dragon replied.

Hiccup had a smile on his face. Now he was at ease knowing that everyone on Berk is accepting this situation well. Suddenly, everyone heard a sound. They all looked in the direction of where the sound came from. This time they saw something wiggle underneath the blanket where the egg was. Hiccup and Toothless went to the blanket and unwrapped the egg. The egg moved, Hiccup and Toothless new that the egg was hatching. They kneeled down to get closer.

"Hey come here, its hatching." Hiccup yelled out to the blue dragon.

The blue dragon went over to the egg. Everyone watched as the egg was moving and making crackling sound. The egg was moving a lot. Toothless grabbed Hiccup's hand, holding it softly. After a while watching the egg moving, finally there was a crack on the egg. Then another one appeared and finally the egg shell broke into little pieces. Laying there was a black and brown baby dragon. It had hind legs, like a human, paws that looks like fingers and a face. Hiccup picked up the baby dragon and held it in his arms.

"It's a girl." Hiccup said.

Everyone felt all bubbly inside. They were amazed that this little creature has come to this amazing world.

"What are you going to call her?" The blue dragon asked.

"Luna. Her name is Luna." Hiccup replied.

"That is a perfect name for our child. Hi Luna, I'm your father and this is your other father." Toothless said.

"Thank you for helping us." Hiccup said to the blue dragon.

"It was my pleasure. I wouldn't have missed this for the world." The blue replied as she was starting to leave the cave.

The dragon left the cave, leaving Hiccup and Toothless with their new baby. The two were filled with joy. Seeing there little Luna looking around and at them. They knew that their lives have gotten interesting.

9. Chapter Nine: Going Home

Chapter Nine: Going Home

It's been three months since Luna was born. She has put joy and happiness in Hiccup and Toothless lives. Luna has even learned to walk just within half a month.

"She has been learning quickly. I think she is ready to travel. We can go home and be with our family." Toothless said.

"We'll leave first thing in the morning." Hiccup replied.

Luna was walking around the cave. She has her arms out like she was flying.

"Hun doesn't seem strange that Luna wasn't born with wings?" Toothless asked.

"I was asking myself that same thing and I think it's because she has both our DNA. She has your skin color, ears, tail and teeth while she has a human body shape, claw hands and claw feet." Hiccup replied.

"Well she is amazing and I'm glad we mated." Toothless said.

"I'm glad we took the chance at being a couple." Hiccup replied before he kissed Toothless.

Luna started to walk to her dads. They broke their kiss and Toothless picked her up. Holding her with care which made Hiccup feel warm inside.

"Can you say daddy Toothless or daddy Hiccup?" Toothless asked in a playful tone.

Luna just giggled and smiled.

"She may have grasped walking quickly but I doubt that she can grasp talking right away." Hiccup said.

Toothless looked at Luna, then at Hiccup, then back at Luna.

"Hun lets leave now. I have a bad feeling that if we stay, something might happen to Luna." Toothless said in a concern tone.

"It's too cold for Luna to travel. She will get a cold and possibly freeze. We leave in the morning." Hiccup replied.

"You do have a point Hun. Fine but I'll be staying up and watching both of you." Toothless replied.

"Aw, Toothless that's sweet. Are you sure you want to?" Hiccup asked.

"Yes, I'll be fine." Toothless replied.

Luna yawned and curled up in Toothless arms.

"I think we will take a nap. So, you can take a breather. Okay Hun." Toothless said.

"Okay. Have a nice nap." Hiccup replied.

Toothless and Luna laid down and feel asleep within ten minutes. Hiccup went out of the cave to get some water and wood. Usually him and Toothless would take Luna with and let her play in the snow.

"So the egg hatched and you even gave it a useless name." A male voice said.

"Who is there? Show yourself." Hiccup said loudly.

A red dragon appeared out of nowhere.

"I suppose you don't remember me. I tried to mate with you." The red dragon said.

Hiccup was worried for he left his knife back at the cave.

"What do you want?" He asked.

"I want two things." The dragon replied.

"Which is?" Hiccup said with a confused face.

"We'll number one is simple. I want Luna." The dragon replied.

"Sorry but that isn't happening. Toothless and I will protect her with our lives" Hiccup said.

"Then you can do the second thing, which will keep me from taking your daughter." The dragon said.

"What's the second thing?" Hiccup asked.

The dragon went up to Hiccup and shoved him to the ground.

"Caring my child." The dragon said as he held Hiccup down.

"I don't think." Hiccup was cut off.

The red dragon has shoved his penis in Hiccups mouth. Forcing Hiccup to suck it.

"If I feel teeth, I'll put it in your butt dry." The dragon said.

Hiccup didn't want to do this but he also didn't want him to dragon-nap Luna. So, he let the dragon do as he wants with his body. The dragon was screwing Hiccups mouth fast and hard, which made Hiccup gage.

"Your mouth is so warm and slimy. It's like it was made for my penis." The dragon said.

Hiccup just laid there. Letting the penis move as it pleased. The dragon pulled out, put Hiccup on his knees and ripped his pants off.

"Hey I needed those you idiot." Hiccup said in angry tone.

"How am I supposed to mate with you if they are covering your." The dragon said as he rubbed his penis against Hiccups buttohole.

Hiccup just didn't move, waiting for the dragon to enter him. The dragon rubbed his penis more on Hiccups hole. Then he put the tip on the entrance.

"I have been waiting for this." The dragon said.

The dragon covered Hiccups mouth with his claw and shoved his entire penis in Hiccups entrance. Hiccup wasn't able to yell since the dragon covered his mouth.

"I remembered what happened last time you shouted." The dragon said.

He started to move his penis in and out of Hiccup. Hiccup had tears running down his cheeks and moaning in pain.

"I'm sorry Toothless." Hiccup said in his head.

The dragon was enjoying how Hiccup's tight and warm hole. It was so good that the dragon thrust faster and pushed his penis in deeper. Hitting Hiccup's pleasure spot. Hiccup was still moaning in pain since the dragon didn't prepare his hole before entering.

"Are you ready for my seed?" The dragon asked.

Hiccup didn't move. He was waiting for the dragon to finish. The dragon did a hard thrust and cumed in Hiccup. Spurting a few gallons of dragon cream. The dragon slowly pulled out, dragon seed leaking out of Hiccup. The dragon flipped Hiccup on his back, putting his penis at Hiccup's mouth.

"Clean it up." The dragon ordered.

Hiccup opened his mouth. The dragon put his penis in and started to move his hips.

"Good job." The dragon said.

The dragon turned around and flew off. Hiccup got up and walked back to the cave. When he got to the entrance, he saw Toothless and Luna sleeping. He went to his traveling bag and got the second pair of pants. Once he got the pair on, he went and laid with Toothless and Luna.

Morning rose and Toothless woke up before Hiccup. He got up and got everything together for the leave. Once Toothless was done, he woke Hiccup.

"Love time to get ready to leave." Toothless said.

"Thanks Toothless." Hiccup replied after he yawned.

Hiccup got up and wrapped Luna up in the blanket. He then helped Toothless with the last minute packing. They were packing food and water.

"Love we won't have enough water for the trip. I'll go get some more." Toothless said.

"Okay hurry back I want to leave right away." Hiccup replied.

"Okay Love." Toothless said before he left.

Hiccup was putting food in his travel bag.

"You won't be able to bare his child." A female voice said.

Hiccup turned around and saw the blue female dragon. He was still puzzled on how the dragon could come and go without anything noticing.

"He mated with you but you can only bare one egg." The dragon said.

"How did you know he mated with me?" Hiccup asked.

"I saw it." The dragon replied.

"Wait you saw the dragon force himself on me and you just watched. Why?" Hiccup asked in an angry voice.

"I couldn't intervene with your timeline." The dragon replied.

"My timeline? What do you mean?" Hiccup said in confusion.

"I have said all that I need to. You will be going home to Berk today?" The dragon asked.

"Yes, Toothless went to get more water for the trip." Hiccup replied.

"That's good. Everyone will be pleased to see your return." The dragon said.

"Won't the bad dragon come after us?" Hiccup asked.

"No he can not leave this island. He is bound here forever." The dragon replied.

"How is he bound here?" Hiccup asked.

"Don't worry about that. Be glad you can leave to your family." The dragon said.

"You're right. Thank You." Hiccup replied as he checked his travel bag.

When he turned back around, the dragon was gone. Toothless returned with the water a few minutes later.

"I think we're all set to go Love. Last thing to do is carry Luna and hop on my back." Toothless said.

Hiccup went and picked up Luna. Holding her close in his arms and went back to Toothless. Toothless laid on his belly so that Hiccup could get on easier. Hiccup attached the travel bag to Toothless's saddle and then he got on the saddle as well while holding Luna. Toothless got up and went to the entrance of the cave. He opened his wings, getting ready to take to the sky.

"Hang on." Toothless as he took off.

Toothless took off at a gentle pace, making sure not to go too fast for Luna might get cold. It would take them three to five miles to reach Berk.

â€|..

Back on Berk, everyone was still depressed about Hiccup and Toothless being gone for so long. When the blue dragon had showed up and told them that Hiccup and Toothless were coming home, everyone was filled with joy. They even had a welcome home party for the day they come back. The party was to be held in the great hall. There were banners, food refreshments and fish for the dragons of course. Everyone on Berk was too excited to wait. The only puzzling thing is that the dragon had said that Hiccup and Toothless were coming home with their baby. No one knew what that meant. Did Hiccup and Toothless find a baby dragon or a real human baby?

â€|

Toothless, Hiccup and Luna was only half a mile from Berk. Toothless and Hiccup were so nervous. Hiccup was thinking of turning back but knew it was too late. Was everyone really going to accept everything or would the ban them from Berk?

"Toothless lets go to the secret escape tunnel." Hiccup said.

"Are you sure?" Toothless replied.

"Yes, we can use the tunnel to go to the house. We'll talk to my dad first before anybody else." Hiccup said.

"If you think that is best Love." Toothless replied as they headed for the escape tunnel.

Hiccup was still trying to figure out what to say to his dad but before he could think of anything, they were already at the tunnel. Hiccup loved how Toothless can go so fast. Toothless did a smooth landing and kneeled down lower so Hiccup could get off easier. Hiccup got off slowly making sure not to scare Luna. Hiccup and Toothless followed the tunnel to the house. The distance was only ten minutes, which Hiccup hoped was enough time to figure something out.

"What on your mind Love?" Toothless asked.

"I don't know what to tell my dad." Hiccup replied.

"The truth. He will want the truth." Toothless said.

"What truth is that?" Hiccup asked.

"Simple, You and I are lovers and we have a child together." Toothless replied with a smile.

"You're right Toothless." Hiccup said as he patted Toothless on the head.

They reached the entrance to the house. The entrance was a removable floor. Toothless pushed it opened and Hiccup went in first. Hiccup had to lift up the floor with one hand since he had Luna in one arm. Toothless went thought and helped Hiccup lower the floor quietly. They went up to Hiccups bed and set Luna on it. Next thing they knew there were two arms rapping around them, squeezing them tightly.

"Hiccup, Toothless you're home." Said a loud male voice.

"Thanks dad." Hiccup said with what breath he had left.

Stoick let them go, allowing them to get their breath.

"When did you two return?" Stoick asked.

"Just now. We took the escape tunnel." Hiccup replied.

"You two scared all of Berk to death. We all were running around like headless chickens trying to find you." Stoick said.

"Ya sorry dad we didn't know how to explain everything to you." Hiccup said as he scratched his head.

"Well how about the truth for starters." Stoick said as he sat down on a chair.

"Okay dad well I guess first thing you should know is that Toothless and I are together." Hiccup said as he put a hand on Toothless.

"Of course you two are. Everyone knows that. You two can't g anywhere without each other." Stoick said.

"No dad we are lovers." Hiccup replied.

"What do you mean lovers?" Stoick asked with a confused face.

Hiccup and Toothless looked at each other. They had the same idea.

"We'll show you." Hiccup said.

Hiccup and Toothless got close to each other and passionately kissed each other. They kissed for a few moments and then broke it, looking at Stoick.

"Oh that kind of lovers. Well I really don't know what to say." Stoick said.

"You don't have to say anything. We are not looking for your approval." Toothless said.

Stoick had a blank expression on his face.

"Toothless had some kind of magic which allows him to talk our speech." Hiccup said.

Stoick still had the expression. So Hiccup and Toothless explained everything to Stoick.

â€|

"So this is my granddaughter?" Stoick asked.

"Yes. Her name is Luna." Toothless replied.

"And Hiccup gave birth to her?" Stoick asked.

"Yes." Hiccup said.

"She is adorable. Your mother would be proud of you Hiccup." Stoick said.

"Thanks dad." Hiccup replied with a smile on his face.

Stoick puts Luna back on the bed.

"Now you two must be very tired. Get some sleep for tomorrow you will be a day of joy." Stoick said before he left.

Hiccup and Toothless got ready for bed. Hiccup went in his bed, snuggling up with Luna. Toothless gave Hiccup a kiss on the cheek and one on Luna's forehead before he went on his rock bed. They both fell asleep within minutes. What will morning bring for them? Well find out in the final chapter: Become A Night Star.

10. Chapter Ten: Became A Night Star

Chapter Ten: Became A Night Star

Hiccup was standing in a foggy forest, not knowing where to go. He could see a shadow figure in the distance.

"Hello, who is there?" Hiccup yelled.

The figure disappeared. Hiccup didn't know what to do. He then suddenly felt a presence behind him. When he looked behind him, there was nothing there. He turned back around and a blue dragon was in front of him. This scared Hiccup to where he fell back on his butt.

"Whoâ€|who are? What do you want?" Hiccup asked.

"I came to warn you Hiccup." The blue dragon replied.

"Warn me of what?" Hiccup asked.

"You will have to make a hard choice. A choice that will affect Luna's future." The dragon said.

"Wait you're that dragon from the island. How did you get me here?" Hiccup asked.

"I did not. You are dreaming Hiccup and I came into your dream to give you a warning." The dragon said.

"I don't understand the warning. What does it mean?" Hiccup asked.

"I'm sorry but I must go. Heed my warning Hiccup for the time draws near." The dragon said before fading away.

Hiccup woke up with a bad pain in his head. Toothless woke up as well. He noticed Hiccup was holding his head.

"You okay Love?" Toothless asked.

"Yes I'm okay just a head pain. It will go away." Hiccup replied as he got out of bed.

Hiccup went downstairs to get some food while Toothless stayed upstairs with Luna. Hiccup was puzzled on what that dragon meant by choosing. Hiccup got some bread for himself, a few fish for Toothless and a small fish for Luna. He went back upstairs.

"Here you Toothless." Toothless said as he threw Toothless's fish at him.

The fish landed right on Toothless's bedrock. Toothless ate them in one bite.

"Thanks Love." Toothless said as he licked his lips.

Hiccup sat on the bed, near Luna and ate his bread. Just as he finished the first piece, he heard the front door open and close.

"Hiccup are you up?" Stoick yelled.

Hiccup went downstairs to his dad.

"Dad be quiet. Luna is still sleeping." Hiccup said softly.

"Oh sorry son. It's time to announce your arrival home." Stoick whispered.

"Okay dad just let me get ready and make sure to tell the villagers to be quiet." Hiccup said.

"Okay son. Meet me in the great hall." Stoick said as he was leaving.

Hiccup exhaled and went back to his bed. He picked up Luna.

"Well Toothless it's time to face everyone." Hiccup said.

Toothless got off his rockbed and followed Hiccup to the front door. Hiccup opened the door and Toothless went out first but Hiccup followed, closing the door behind him. They both headed for the great hall, which wasn't far from Hiccups home. Once they reached the doors, they both took a moment to gather there strength.

"Don't worry Love everything will be fine." Toothless said.

"I wish I could be that sure." Hiccup replied.

"Me and Luna will be right beside you." Toothless said.

Hiccup smiled at Luna.

"Well lets see what everybody will say." Toothless said as he put his claw on the door.

"Hun." Hiccup said.

"What?" Toothless asked.

"My dad and my mom called each other hun. I think that was a love nickname they did to show their love. I'm going to use it with you as well." Hiccup replied.

"It does sound fun to say." Toothless relied.

"Yes it is. Okay Hun lets go." Hiccup said as he put his hand on the other door.

They both opened the doors together. Entering into the great hall. Everyone whispered surprise at them. Hiccup and Toothless were shocked. They were expecting everyone to have angry faces but instead everyone had joy. Hiccup and Toothless walked down to the around fire place where Stoick and Gobber were. Once Hiccup and Toothless reached them, everyone was quiet. There was a long moment of silence.

"Dad why is everyone so quiet?" Hiccup asked.

"We are waiting to hear what you have to say." Stoick replied.

"I don't know where to begin." Hiccup said.

"How about explain Toothless talking for starters." Stoick suggested.

â€|

After explaining everything to everyone, they all were comfortable with the fact that Hiccup and Toothless were in love with each other and even more comfortable with Hiccup being able to produce a baby. Berk celebrated the return of Hiccup and Toothless along with a new member of Berk. Hiccup was sitting in the back, holding Luna who was awake. Toothless was with his dragon friends. Astrid came and sat with Hiccup.

"So you and Toothless are lovers now." Astrid said.

"Yes we are." Hiccup replied.

"And you have a child together." Astrid said.

"Yes we do. Is this going anywhere Astrid?" Hiccup asked.

"Just wanted to know, what was it like?" Astrid asked.

"What was what like?" Hiccup asked all confused.

"Sex with Toothless. What was it like?" Astrid asked.

"Oh um it was good." Hiccup said as he blushed red.

"You're lying. I can see it on your face. What was it really like?" Astrid asked.

"It was amazing. I felt sensations you couldn't believe. When we first did it, it felt right." Hiccup said.

Astrid just stared at him like she was in shock.

"What's wrong?" Hiccup asked her.

"Nothing just surprised is all." She replied.

"Was there anything you wanted to know?" He asked.

"No that's it" She replied as she got up and left.

Toothless came over to see how Hiccup and Luna were doing.

"How are you two doing?" Toothless asked.

"Were kind of tired actually. I think were retiring for the night." Hiccup said.

"Okay, I'll tell Stoick and were go back home." Toothless said.

Toothless went and told Stoick. Hiccup, Toothless and Luna went home. Once they got home, Hiccup and Luna were in the bed and Toothless was on his rockbed. They all fell asleep quickly.

â€

Sixteen years later, Hiccup, Toothless and Luna had their own place and are living peacefully on Berk. Hiccup worked at the saddle shop and Toothless stayed home to take care of Luna. Luna grew up respecting her parents. Stoick visited any chance he got to see his granddaughter. Hiccup was coming home from work. The distance was only a thirty minuet walk. When he got home, Stoick was there talking with Luna and Toothless. They were in the dining room.

"Hey dad, welcome home" Luna said happily.

"Thanks Luna. Hi Hun and hi dad." Hiccup said.

"Welcome home Love. There is some coffee in the kettle." Toothless said.

"Thanks Hun." Hiccup replied.

Hiccup got some coffee and sat with everyone.

"Hey dad I have something for you. I made it by hand." Luna said as she got up.

As Luna got up, she fell down on the floor. Hiccup and Toothless went to her quickly. Luna was breathing lightly and her pulse was weak.

"What's wrong with her?" Stoick asked.

"I'm not sure dad" Hiccup replied.

"Her soul is fading away." A mysterious voice said.

Everyone turned around and saw a blue dragon. Hiccup and Toothless looked at the dragon.

"It's you from my dream and from the island." Hiccup said.

"Yes Hiccup and I had warned you." The dragon said.

"That was sixteen years ago. I never understood what the warning was." He replied.

"Luna's soul is fading. A dragonoid's soul starts to fade after sixteen years. To stop it from fading, it needs the soul from its birth parent." The dragon said.

"What does she mean she warned you sixteen years ago?" Toothless asked.

"Sixteen years ago, she came into my dream and warned me that Luna's future was in danger and I would have a choice to make." Hiccup replied.

The dragon held out a clear orb.

"What is that?" Toothless asked.

"It's a soul orb extractor. It takes a soul from a body and that soul can be placed in any living creature." The dragon replied.

Stoick and Toothless were confused.

"So all I have to do is give Luna my soul and she will live." Hiccup said.

"That is correct. I'll concentrate my magic and the orb will pull your soul out and place it in Luna's body." The dragon said.

"Is another way to save our daughter?" Toothless asked.

"No because Luna wasn't born from two dragonoids, her soul couldn't hold onto that body." The dragon said.

"I'll do it for Luna. I would have given my life to protect her. Both me and Toothless would have." Hiccup said.

"What about my soul? Won't mine work instead?" Toothless asked.

"No, the soul has to be from the one who gave her life, which is Hiccup." The dragon said.

Hiccup picked Luna's body. He could feel her life slipping away.

"If we're going to do this, we're going to do it at a special place." Hiccup said.

"What place is that?" The dragon asked.

"The place where all this began, to Night Fury Valley." Hiccup said..t the Luna le shodaughter are of Luna. k

"Very well then, I'll meet you there." The dragon said.

Hiccup and Toothless went outside. Hiccup was getting on Toothless. Once he was set up, Stoick handed Luna to him.

"Son before you go I just wanted to tell youâ€¦me and your mother are proud of you. More prouder then we could have been in our entire lives." Stoick said.

"Thanks dad." Hiccup replied.

Toothless took off with haste. They didn't know how much time they had before Luna would be gone forever. They got there within two minutes. Toothless landed and Hiccup got off with Luna in his arms. The blue dragon was already there like she said she would. Hiccup and Toothless went to her.

"Are you ready?" The dragon asked.

"Yes I am." Hiccup replied.

Hiccup put Luna's body on the ground and he laid next to her, holding her hand. Toothless went to Hiccup and kissed him one last time.

"I love Hiccup." Toothless said after the kiss.

"I love you to Toothless." Hiccup said with a tear coming out of his eye.

The dragon stood at Hiccup and Luna's feet. The orb started to glow a light green and slowly turned darker. Toothless put his claw on Hiccups hand, which Hiccup squeezed tightly. The orb was now a dark green color. Hiccup stopped squeezing Toothless claw. Toothless knew what that meant.

"Now to transfer Hiccups soul into Luna's body." The dragon said.

The dragon placed the orb on Luna's chest and the orb slowly disappeared into Luna. A moment passed and Luna slowly woke. Toothless went and held her tightly.

"Whatâ€¦what happened? Where am I?" She asked.

"We almost lost you. You were dying but your back now." Toothless said.

"Where is daddy Hiccup? Where is he?" Luna asked as she looked around.

When she looked to her side, she saw Hiccup laying there motionless.

"Dad I'm all better." Luna said.

There was no moment from Hiccup. Luna went and shook Hiccup.

"Dad wake up. This isn't funny." Luna said as she shook him.

Toothless grabbed Luna and held her tightly.

"Hiccup is gone. He gave his soul to you so you could live." Toothless said.

"No! That can't be! You're lying. We were supposed to be a family." Luna said.

"I'm sorry child but it's true. Your father gave his life so you could have one." The dragon said.

Luna started to cry. She turned around and held Toothless. They both started to cry.

"There is something he left for both of you." The dragon said.

"What's that?" Toothless said.

The dragon put the orb down on the ground.

"Toothless, Luna if you're hearing this then the soul transfer was complete." Hiccups voice said.

"That is dad's voice." Luna said.

"Yes but listen" The dragon said.

"I was able to do a memory voice log and keep it in the orb. I just wanted to let you both know that I love you guys. More than anything in the whole world. Toothless, we had amazing adventures together but the most memorable one was raising Luna together. Luna, you are the most beautiful being I have seen in this world and I am glad you are my daughter. I want you to live your life. Finally, Toothless I want you to tell my dad thanks for being there. For raising me all by himself. I love all of you and I am glad my life had such love and gifts." Hiccups voice said.

The dragon picked up the orb. She looked at Toothless.

"Can you take that thing off your tail?" The dragon asked as she pointed to Toothless's alternate tail.

"Yes, why do you want to know that?" Toothless asked.

"You can't fly without a rider correct. I have one final task that Hiccup wanted me to do." The dragon said.

Toothless took the alternate tail off with the help of Luna. The dragon stood over Toothless's tail and curled over it. When she uncurled and moved away, Toothless missing tail wing was restored. Toothless looked at it in shock. He would have never thought that his missing wing tail would be fixed. Even Luna was amazed at how the dragon did that.

"How did you do that?" Luna asked.

"Dragon magic my dear." The dragon said.

Toothless and Luna looked at the new tail wing but when they looked back up, the dragon was gone. They looked around and couldn't see her. Toothless knew she did her disappear magic. Toothless and Luna went back to Hiccups body. Luna placed Hiccups body on Toothless's back and they flew back to Berk. When they flew over Berk, everyone was outside like they were waiting for them. Toothless saw Stoick and so they landed near him. Luna picked up Hiccup and handed him to Stoick.

"I'm sorry. I'm so sorry." Luna said with a tear.

Stoick held Hiccup and started to cry.

"Your son is a hero. He saved Luna's life. He saved that last of the dragonoids." Toothless said.

"I know." Stoick replied.

"So no more tears but instead let's honor him." Toothless said.

Stoick looked at Hiccup.

"We will bury him with his mother." Stoick said.

"I think he would have wanted that." Toothless said.

Everyone followed Stoick, who lead them to where Hiccups mother's grave, was. It didn't take long to bury Hiccup because everyone on Berk helped. Now everyone was standing at Hiccups grave.

"I just wanted to say thank you all for helping. Hiccup was always there for us all when we needed him. He was also a good partner and was a good father. I couldn't have asked for a better mate." Toothless said.

Everyone just held their heads down. Some were crying while others were trying not to.

"Iâ€¦Iâ€¦ I never really told Hiccup how proud I was of him. I only told him a few times but the truth is that I was proud of him every day." Stoick said as just a tear ran down his cheek.

"Dad, you gave birth to me, you and Toothless raised me and now you saved me. The last of the dragonoids. I will live a full and happy life." Luna said.

It was night time. Everyone stood there in a moment of silence. Then everyone left a few at a time until it was only Luna.

"I don't want you to go." She said.

Luna looked up at the stars and one star twinkled. Luna smiled.

"You became a night star." She said with a smile.

The End?

NightFuryBoy- Hey fanfiction readers/followers I just wanted to say thank you for reading How To Train Your Dragonoid and I really want to say thanks to those who left positive reviews. I know this took me a long time to complete but you guys were so patient on the new chapters. So again thank you from the bottom of my heart.
